

Jason Hatfield, DO

General Orthopaedics

Dr. Hatfield graduated in 1994 from Samford University in Birmingham, AL, with a Bachelor of Science degree in Biology and a minor in Chemistry. He then went on to graduate medical school at Kansas City University of Medicine and Biosciences in 1998, and completed his medical experience with residency at University of Mississippi/North Mississippi Medical Center Family Medicine from 1999-2001.

Dr. Hatfield began his career in 2001 as a partner of Physician's Clinic. In addition, he worked full-time as an ER physician at Northwest Medical Center. In 2004, Dr. Hatfield formed his solo family and sports medicine clinic, Hatfield Medical Clinic in Winfield, AL. After 14 years of serving his community with family and sports medicine care in his private practice, Dr. Hatfield decided to make the move to specialize in sports medicine care and joined OrthoSports Athens as a nonsurgical orthopaedics and sports medicine physician.

From 2002 until present, Dr. Hatfield has also practiced as a part-time Wound Care Physician. He was a Medical Director from 2003 until 2016. Dr. Hatfield has worked with Athens Limestone Wound Management Center since 2015 and has been serving as Medical Director in that facility since that time.
